

Orchestra Concert Review

Due Wed. Nov. 5, 2008

Imagine that you are a columnist for your favorite newspaper. Each week you get to write about an event in the community that is of interest to you. This week's topic is the Fall Orchestra & Choir Concert that was held on Oct. 28.

Your job is to write a review of the concert. Things to write about might include the following:

- What did you like best?
- What didn't you like?
- How did you feel as a performer in this concert?
- What do you feel were the strength's of the various performing ensembles?
- What went well?
- What didn't go so well?
- What were the highlights?
- What 'musical moments' did you experience?
- What can still be improved upon?
- How do you feel about your personal performance?
- What did you personally do well?
- What do you want to improve?

Reviews can be typed or handwritten.

Typed reviews should be at least 2/3 of a page, text size 12.

Handwritten reviews should be at least one page long.
